NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

The Great Farmer's Paper!

The Paper of the People.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE GREAT FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

It is cheap because its circulation is larger than that of any other newspaper.

NOW IS THE TIME TO FORM CLUBS.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE contains all the important editorials published in the Daily Tribune, except those of merely local interest; also literary and scientific intelligence; reviews of the most interesting and important new books; letters from our large corps of correspondents; latest news received by telegraph from all parts of the world; a summary of all important intelligence in this city and elsewhere; a synopsis of the proceedings of congress and state legislature when in session; foreign news received by every steamer; exclusive reports of the proceedings of the farmers' club of the American Institute; talks about fruit; Stock, finance, cattle, dry goods and general market reports.

HORTICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

To keep pace with the growing interest in practical horticulture, and to comply with frequent appeals from all parts of the country for information of a practical character on the subject, we have engaged the services of a person who is experienced in rural affairs to write in a lucid style a series of articles on the management of small farms, fruit and vegetable culture, and how to make them pay, giving general and specific directions from planting to the ultimate disposal of the crops.

Of late years there has been a lucrative business carried on by unprincipled men, in selling worthless and old plants under new names to the inexperienced. The Tribune will be always ready to guard the farmer against any such imposition that comes within our knowledge.

VETERINARY DEPARTMENT.

To make the Tribune still mor valuable to its agricultural readers, we have engaged Prof. James Law, veterinary surgeon in Cornell University, to answer questions concerning diseases of cattle, horses, sheep, and other domestic animals, and to prescribe remedies Answers and prescriptions will be given only through the columns of the Tribune. We are sure that this new feature in the Tribune will add largely to its readers, as all owners of animals are liable to need the information proffered Inquiries should be made as brief as possible, that the questions, answers, and prescriptions may be published together. In short, we intend that the Tribune shall keep in the advance in all that concerns the agricultural, manufacturing, mining and other interests of the country, and that for variety and completeness, it shall remain altogether the most valuable, interesting, and instructive newspaper publishec in the world.

It has been well observed that a careful reading and study of the Farmer's club reports in the Tribune alone will save a farmer hundreds of dollars in his crop. In addition to these reports, we shall continue to print the best things written on the subject of agriculture by American and foreign writers, and shall increase these features from year to year. As it is, no prudent farmer can do without it. As a lesson to his workmen alone every farmer should place the Weekly Tribune upon his table every Saturday evening.

The Tribune is the best and cheapest paper in the country. This is not said in a spirit of boastfulness. It has fallen to New York to create the greatest newspapers of the country. Here concentrate the commerce, the manufactures, the mineral resources, the agricultural wealth of the republic. Here all the news gathers, and the patronage is so large that journalists can afford to print it. This is the strength of the Tribune. We print the cheapest and best edited weekly paper in the country. We have all the advantages around us. We have great daily and semi-weekly editions. All the elaborate and intricate machinery of our establishment—perhaps the most complete in America—is devoted to the purpose of making the Weekly Tribune the best and cheapest newspaper in the world. The result is that we have so systematized and expanded our resources that every copy of the Weekly Tribune contains as much matter as a duodecimo volume. Think of it. For two dollars, the subscriber to the Tribune for one year buys as much reading matter as though he filled a shelf of his library with fifty volumes, containing the greatest work in the language. The force of cheapness can no further go.

The Weekly Tribune is the paper of the people. Here the eager student may learn the last lessons of science. Here the scholar may read reviews of the best books. Here may be found correspondence from all parts of the world, the observations of sincere and gifted men, who serve the Tribune in almost every country.

The Tribune is strong by reason of its enormous circulation and great cheapness. It has long been conceded that the Weekly Tribune has the largest circulation of any newspaper in the country. For years we have printed twice as many papers, perhaps, as all of the other weekly editions of the city dailies combined. This is why we are enabled to do our work so thoroughly and cheaply. The larger our circulation, the better paper we can make.

What are the practical suggestions? Many. Let every subscriber renew his subscription, and urge his neighbor to do the same. If a man cannot afford to pay two dollars, let him raise a club, by inducing his neighbors to subscribe, and we shall send him a copy gratis for his trouble. No newspaper so large and complete as the Weekly Tribune was ever before offered at so low a price. Even when our currency was at par with gold, no such paper but the Tribune was offered at that price; and the Tribune then cost us far less than it does now. We have solved the problem of making the best and cheapest newspaper in America.

The New York Semi-Weekly Tribune

is published every Tuesday and Friday, and being printed twice a week, we can, of course, print all that appears in our weekly edition, including everything on the subject of agriculture, and can add much interesting and valuable matter for which there is not sufficient room in the weekly Tribune. The Semi-Weekly Tribune also gives in the course of a year, three or four of

Best and Latest Popular Novels

by living authors. The cost of these alone, if bought in book form, would be from six to eight dollars. Nowhere else can so much current intelligence and permanent literary matter be had at so cheap a rate as in the Semi-Weekly Tribune.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Tribune.

Mail subscriber, 1 copy 1 year 104 nos.	$4,00
Mail sub. 2 copies 1 year 104 nos.	7,00
Mail sub. 5 copies or over for each copy	3,00

Persons remitting for 10 copies $30 will receive an extra copy for one year.

For $100 we will send 34 copies and the Daily Tribune.

The New York Daily Tribune is published every morning (Sundays excepted) at $10 per year; $5 for six months.

In making remitances for subscriptions or books, always procure a draft on New York, or a post office money order, if possible. Where neither of these can be procured, send the money, but always in a registered letter. The registration fee has been reduced to fifteen cents, and the present registration system has been found by the postal authorities to be virtually an absolute protection against losses by mail. All postmasters are obliged to register letters whenever requested to do so.

Terms, cash in advace.

A few years ago, says the New Hampshire Mirror, we heard Dr. Oliver W. Holmes, one of the medical professors of Harvard College, say that for over twenty-two hundred years physicians had used the common elder (Sambucus), and that they had just found out that it possessed no virtue whatever as a remedy for any known disease.

INDEPENDENT.

GREAT MEN are expensive luxuries, whether living or dead. If living there are thousands who will be obsequious toward them, and if possible at the public expense, but their aim is to make money or glory, or both out of these notables. It took a great many thousands of dollars to bury some of our dead statesmen, and to do honor to their fame Somebody's pockets were well filled by the operation. Lately Mr. Peabody, the controler, during his latter days, of a great number of millions of dollars, died, and the English government spent many thousands of pounds sterling in doing reverence to the deceased remains. And it is proposed that our government should be equally liberal, as he is to be buried in his native cemetery, if not already laid beneath the sod. Mr. Peabody was not a pauper that the public should pay for his burial—he had plenty of money left to do that, and why waste thousands of dollars merely for show? But somebody will make money out of the operation, and that is what it is for, in the minds of a certain class. But the American people will want something to remember him by, and they must raise means to erect an expensive memorial, say a certain class, or we shall be looked upon as ungrateful. There is no need of such useless expense—at least to the people of this country. It was in a measure, their labor which contributed to Mr. Peabody's wealth, so they owe him nothing. And if we would have a memorial in his behalf, has not Mr. P's munificence contributed such a one in giving immense sums, toward the establishment of schools for the education of the ignorant? That is a perrennial memento which will for uncounted years keep the memory of such a liberal patron of education fresh among the thousands and millions of our people who may realize the benefits arising from this source. A pile of cold marble may be a nice thing to look at, associating it with the liberality of one who has passed, but the living warm hearts of the great numbers who are blessed with the fruits of Mr. P's foresight in erecting places of learning will be a much more practical illustration of the usefulness of his riches.

WHEAT IS KING.

This was once said of Cotton, but never true in the sense we apply it to wheat.

Cotton was king inasmuch as it brought the ready cash to a class of aristocrats whose only labor was to control slaves, study politics and rule ar ruin the nation.

That was the extent of Cotton King's gifts. It did not give more brain, more backbone and muscle, more industry, more mechanical skill and inventive genius, or more enterprise in pushing the manufacturing institutions of the country. But King Wheat is a wonderful fellow for promoting all these influences which are so necessary to human progression. He ranks highest, according to chemistry, in the scale of invention and therefore his subjects are the healthiest and bravest of men. He repairs the wasting blood with the greatest promptness and certainty, and infuses vigor into every ramification of society. It is said that a hundred English Wheat eaters govern as many thousands of the rice consuming swarms of Lower Asia. In England and Wales the amount eaten by each person, on an average, is 6 bushels, in Scotland 4½ bushels, in Ireland 3½. These proportions accurately represent the power and value of these countries in civilization.

It this theory be correct, then it follows that wheat growing men and wheat eating men must always remain the most vigorous, enterprising and controlling leaders in the management of society and the great institutions of the world. And cheered by this pleasing egotistical hallucination, as some of our more southern johnny cake eaters may call it, we are waiting for Gen. Garfield's new census to convince the rest of mankind by facts and figures that Stark county producing as she does, more wheat, bigger and better bread loaves, fatter hogs, fine and tender beef, with once in a while a little touch of genuine sourcrout by way of salad, does also of necessity, produce better men.

We concede everything possible and impossible to the restless go aheadativeness of the everlasting Yankee. But when he wants to find solidarty, strength, permanancy, steady endurance, untiring asiduity and perseverance it takes the miscegenated inhabitants of old Molly Stark, who are all wheaten bread eaters and beef eaters, to lead the way in all useful enterprises; of which our numerous manufactories, machine shops and furnaces are proof.

We don't say that we accomplish as much in a single day as some of our more excitable and nervous neighbors. A sudden rush can be easily got out of a meal of potatoes and buttermilk or from a cup of tea with sweet cakes and two or three little squares of skimmilk cheese. We knock under therefore to all Western Reserve Irish and Yankees, and all such places as Ravenna for being great in little things; but for a steady pull, a sure aim, a big job, a cautious enterprise and enduring success we point to such proof as Alliance, Canton, Massillon and Akron who are a solid, sturdy, beef eating, wheat growing and wheat consuming people.

We have put in Akron not to indicate that she is in Stark county, but simply to give additional proof of our theory—Summit being also a great wheat county.

And now then the point we are driving at more than any other, is the fact that wherever a mixed system of agriculture obtains, with wheat for the leading cereal, there will always be found a capacity for subsisting a greater number of inhabitants to the square mile for less money than any where else in the world. And it is equally notorious that Canton and Massillon invariably offer the cheapest market for human food to be found in eastern Ohio; while wages are always as high or higher than in any new, grass growing or dairy region.

In Portage county the working mechanic had to pay 12 cents a pound for a dressed hog last week, while the same day in Massillon he could have bought as good pork for 9 cents; and yet the farmer in Stark, with his grand wheat garners and other grain, would be better paid at 9 cents than the Portage Co. man at twelve. THE DEVIL'S REVENUE.

The New York Star very properly designates the money squandered by moderate and regular drinkers for intoxicating beverages as the "devil's revenue." And an immense revenue derived from this source the devil has. Enough to pay the ordinary expenses of all the governments on the face of the earth, with several millions to spare. Think of it, you who are daily wasting your substance in riotous living—you who are hastening your steps to the grave, destroying your prospects here and hereafter and weighing down your families with poverty, wretchedness and shame—think of it, and pause while yet there is time. Add not another cent to the 'devil's revenue"—withdraw your names from his tax list. Look at the yearly amount to which each of you contributes. Says the Star: "One billion four hundred and eighty-three million four hundred and ninety one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five—that is it. The price of happiness, peace, hope, aspiration—in short the value of the American retail liquor sales in a single year. More than all the product of gold and silver from American territory for twenty years, and ten times the value of our whole church property. These are encouraging statistics, truly. Forty three dollars for every man, woman and child in the country! Most of the money thus devoted to his Satanic majesty comes from the pockets of laboring men—who getting one foot at a time into the whirlpool, go down inch by inch, with unconscious rapidity. It is a common mistake of laborers that liquor is necessary to sustain their strength under exhausting conditions. Careful examinations prove this a fatal fallacy. The effect, gratefully exhilarating on a small capital at first, wears off quickly, and the succeeding doses, to be felt, necessarily grow larger. But the superficial strength obtained in this way disappears all the more rapidly at last for its constant renewals. The drinker—moderate drinker, he may think himself—dies when he should be at the most powerful period of his existence. Dies from fever, or consumption, or "visitation of God"—but, whatever it is called, dies from something which has its root in this unhappy habit.

Every word of it true. Here is food for reflection—a short but excellent temperance lecture, which we trust may impress itself deeply in the minds of the thousands of otherwise good (and might be useful) men who are on the broad road to ruin drinking themselves into dishonorable and untimely graves.

TESTIMONY OF FACTS AND FIGURES.

The statement has been made frequently, that under the operation of prohibitory laws more liquor is sold and used than under license laws. Every now and then we meet a drinking man who has stopped for a day or two at a liquor selling hotel in a New England city, where he has seen liquor furnished to guests, and who is thenceforth bold to assert from his own observation that people drink enormously whenever liquor selling is prohibited by law. Based on the testimony of such observers are the untruthful newspaper articles which are frequently published for the purpose of bringing all political action into disrepute. The utter worthlessness of such statements is best shown by a citation of facts and figures from official sources, whose trustworthiness and accuracy have not been, and can not, be questioned.

Take, for instance, the report of the special commissioner of revenue, Hon. David A. Wells, for the year ending June 30th, 1867, a year in which both Maine and Massachusetts were under the operation of prohibitory law. A comparison of these states with those which were under the operation of license, laws, will show that in the latter the expense of liquors was from four to seven times greater than in Maine and Massachusetts. In Maine the per capita, was about $15, while in the license law states it was from $60 to $120.

The idea that men will drink more just for spite, where liquor selling is prohibited, has no foundation in fact or common sense. Where theft is prohibited by law, thieves do not engage in it more largely, just for spite. No offense against the peace, welfare, or morals of the public is found to be increased by the interference of legal authority to prevent it. On the other hand, experience shows that any legalized evil grows and flourishes under the laws which licensed it. Paris, where the houses of prostitution are licensed, is notoriously the most licentious city in the Christendom. License laws regulating the traffic in liquors, have been in operation in England four hundred years, yet intemperance has steadily increased. It rapidly increases in every part of the United States where license laws are in operation.

Let those who say drinking is increased by attempts at prohibition bring forward something more than mere assertions to support their theory. Let those who plead for license as a measure for the promotion of temperance, show when and where good has been promoted by licensing evil.—Temperance Times.

A Nashville serenading party travelled ten miles and fiddled two hours in front of a house before they discovered that it was empty.

SMOKING

One of the most stupid, contemptible, and filthy sights, in our eye, is to see a grown up man stuck behind a cigar or dirtier pipe, spending whole hours in drawing smoke into his mouth and then puffing it out, sleepily gazing up at its curling wreaths as if there was something entrancing in the sight. When we take into account the useless expense, the bootless trouble, and the beastly scattering about of the noisome saliva incident to the habit, the wonder is that any man of intelligence should cultivate the despicable slavery, such a relentless despotism; that it is so, no one can deny, for if an habitual smoker has not his cigar at the accustomed time, he is literally miserable, and by his peevishness, fretfulness, and irritability makes all around him as uncomfortable as himself. Suppose he has to go on a journey, the overshadowing thought of his heart, his first, his middle and his last concern is that he does not leave without a full supply of dearly beloved cigars; and if by any means they should be left or lost he is one of the most miserable of men Shame on the intelligence that cannot summon courage to break such a chain on the instant into ten thousand atoms. A tobacco smoker without his pipe is no man at all; he is not himself, and the miserable habit grows on him day by day, until at length, he is only human or humane when he has a pipe in his lips. He can't drive his horse without a cigar in his mouth; he can't make a trade unless he is smoking. What cares he for the convenience and comfort of others; what for the respect due to ladies? Why, rather than not smoke, he would drive a dozen people from an omnibus, or half a hundred from a railroad car! There he goes strutting along the street, brushing by ladies and allowing the filthy fumes to dash against their faces; fumes made more filthy from having gathered worse odors from his rotten teeth and the slimsy saliva which is plastered over inner cheeks. The next thing is to spit on the sidewalk and have it wiped up by the dress of some unfortunate passer-by. But what cares a smoker for considerations like these? Only give him a smoke and all else is nothing to him; so supreme is he in is selfishness, that respect, gallantry, good feeling, all are lost.

It so happens that the two men who fill the most important stations in their line in the civilized world are helpless slaves to the miserable practice. The Emperor of the French was dying of the habit of smoking seventeen cigars a day, and was compelled by imperative medical authority to cut it down to seven; and about the same time our own President had to curtail his indulgence in the same direction, or imperil a nation's interests. Reader, are you a smoker? Then you are literally and unmistakably a fool. There is no use in playing the courtier here, as long as you are a slave to the pipe and to the cigar; for you are a voluntary slave to a useless, expensive, filthy, and hurtful habit. Is it not folly to prefer slavery to freedom, and that a disgusting slavery? Hall's Journal of Health.

SOME QUEER DEFINITIONS.

Few persons are aware how much knowledge is sometimes necessary to give the etymology and definition of a word. It is easy to define words, as certain persons satirized by Pascal have defined light: "A luminary movement of luminous bodies;" or as a western judge once defined murder to a jury: "Murder, gentlemen, is when a man is murderously killed. It is the murdering that constitutes murder in the eye of the law. Murder, in short, is—murder." We have all smiled at Johnson's definition of network: "Network—anything reticulated or decussated at equal distances, with interstices between the intersections." Many of the definitions in our dictionaries remind one of Bardolph's attempt to analyze the term accommodation "Accommodation—that is, when a man is, as they say, accommodated, or when a man is being whereby he may be thought to be accommodated, which is an excellent thing." Brimstone, for example, the lexicographer defines by telling us that it is sulphur; and then rewards us for the trouble we have had in turning to sulphur, by telling us that it is brimstone. The eccentric Davy Crockett, whose exterior roughness veiled a great deal of mother wit, happily characterized this whole tribe of lexicographers by a remark he once made to a western member of congress. When the latter, in a speech on a bill for increasing the number of hospitals, wearied his hearers by incessant repetition—"Sit down," whispered Crockett, 'you are coming out of the same hole you went in at." Is is said that forty members of the French Academy once undertook to define the word crab, and hit upon this, which they deemed quite satisfactory: "Crab—a small red fish, which walks backward." "Perfect, gentlemen,' said Cuvier, when interrogated touching the correctness of the definition; 'perfect—only I will make one small observation in natural history. The crab is not a fish, it is not red, and it does not walk backward. With these exceptions, your definition is admirable."—Western Monthly for December.

Krupp, the great manufacturer of cannons in Prussia, who employs over seventeen thousand workmen, has acquired so much wealth that he intends putting up a family residence which is to exceed in magnificence any royal palace in Europe. The cost is estimated at seven millions of dollars. He has also purchased a fine domain for his only son.—English Paper.

A paper manufacturer in Buffalo has been buying a large quantity of wire grass for the purpose of manufacturing it into wrapping paper. He pays $30 a tun for it delivered. The grass comes from Michigan. The manufacturer claims to be able to make a better, tougher and cheaper article of wrapping paper than from any other material now in use.

Massillon, Wednesday, Dec. 22.

Constitutional Amendment--YES.

Congress adjourns to-day to meet again on Thursday, January 6th, 1870.

Some of our cotemporaries seem as if they will never become tired of savagely pitching into Revds. Frothingham and Beecher for performing the marriage ceremony between Mr. A. D. Richardson and Mrs. McFarland. It appears that Mrs. M. was divorced from her husband some two years ago, but M. still harbored revenge, and shot Richardson, who has since died. Possibly Beecher and Frothingham were guilty of a moral wrong in pursuing the course they did, but who is to settle that question? It might be suggested to those fierce opposers of these reverend gentlemen's course that the more they say on the question the less people think of their position. So they cannot settle it by that means of warfare. We take it for granted that Beecher and Frothingham are of age, and are not accountable as wards, to these editorial censors. So the latter may as well dry up.

No little controversy and agitation have marked the latter days concerning the right of women to vote. The west is ahead on that question, for late reports say that the territory of Wyoming so far as the legislature has power, has conferred this privilege on women. That indicates shrewdness to, say the least, while it proves that our friends away off toward sunset have a just appreciation of the rightfulness and importance of the movement. One object aimed at is supposed to be, that it will induce emigration more rapidly than if this measure were not adopted. Generally new territories and states are first settled by men with very few women, but if this measure has not a tendency to change the programme it is hard to tell what will. If this privilege to the women is continued it will be a poor territory and still poorer state for the flourishing prosperity of grogshops.

The president, who almost always proves excellent judgment in selecting men for responsible positions, has nominated, and the senate confirmed Hon. E. M Stanton as one of the judges of the U. S. supreme court, to fill the vacancy occurring on the resignation of judge Grier.

Repudiation.—A congressman from Ohio by the name of Mungen—when a jour printer the boys called him Bill Mungen—the other day made a repudiation speech. The republicans had nothing to do but listen to Mungen and his fellow democrats, half a dozen or so of whom pitched into him savagely for uttering such sentiments, and repudiating him and and his notions most emphatically. When put to vote Billy's proposition had jnst one supporter—Jones of Ky.—to 123. So the repudiator was repudiated, not even voting for his own motion.

Senator Potts.—Some months ago J. M. Ashley, an ex-member of congress from the Toledo district, was appointed governor of the territory of Montana. While in congress he appeared sometimes to be a radical of the radicals—so much so that the democracy made his course a free subject of discussion and criticism. But somehow since he has been transferred to the west and made a governor a change appears in his course. He now seems to think there is danger in even permitting colored people to enter his dominion lest the morals of white folks may be corrupted, and all that sort of stuff, common with whilom proslavery advocates. The administration will not stand such nonsense, and Mr. Ashley's place is to be filled (so it looks just now) with our state senator, Gen. B. F. Potts. There is no danger, we think, of him abandoning his political principles. The Toledo Commercial thus refers to Gen. Potts: it is a record of which any man may be proud:

General Benjamin F. Potts, the nominee for governor of Montana, is a native of Carroll county, Ohio, and 33 years on the 29th January last. In 1856, then about 20 years old, he took an active part in politics, as a democrat. In '57 he commenced the study of the law, and began his practice at Carrollton. He was a delegate to both the Charleston and Baltimore conventions of '60, where he supported Douglas. At the commencement of the rebellion he raised a company for the 33d Ohio regiment of which he was chosen captain. His war record is specially brilliant, he having served with distinction in many of the more prominent battles of Western Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Georgia and North and South Carolina. He participated in the battles near Atlanta on the 20th, 21st 22d, and 28th of July, '64. Gen. Giles A Smith, in a private letter at the time said: "Col. Potts did more on the 22d of July to save the good name of the Army of the Tennessee than any other one man." He received his promotion as Brigadier General when at Pocotaligo, S. C. in January, '65. He now stands recommended for a colonelcy in the regular army by Generals Sherman, Howard, Logan, Smith and Blair. He has a fine physique, and was pointed out by General Sherman, on the review in front of the presidential mansion, in '65, as his (Sherman's) "Sample Vandal." His nomination was strongly urged by Senator Sherman and others at the time of the previous appointment, and we think the present selection will meet with general approval.

Of course a special election must be held in this district, the time of which is to be named by Gov. Hayes.

Mahlon Chance, Esq., (son of Henry Chance, the Buckeye Broadax, known as the indefatgable temperance lecturer) has been appointed consul to Nassau. Our Ohio young men seem to be special favorites of the administration as it was not long since that Gen. Campbell, of Salem was appointed governor of Wyoming territory.

Judge Grier, of Pennsylvania, for many years one of the associates on the bench of the supreme court, has resigned his position, and Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts will probably be put in his place. Judge Grier was a man of considerable ability, yet it cannot be forgotten that his proslavery course years ago was disreputable to one in his position. His resignation is an exception to Jefferson's observation as to office holders of his day, of whom he said, "Few die, and none resign."

The great general council of the highest orders of bishops and other officials of the Roman Catholic church, at the head of which stands Pope Pius IX, convened at Rome on the 8th inst. The direct object of this meeting is not fully known to the outside world, and there has been much speculation as to what will be the result of their deliberations.

Of course questions of importance to the church will be considered, and it is said the debates are to be in the Latin language, and reporters are forbidden to publish the doings. Representatives are now at Rome who are sent from all countries where that religion is taught, several being from the United States. It has been several hundreds of years since a similar council met, so there is no doubt but the authorities and members of that church regard this convention as one of unusual importance.

The other evening as the delineator of Hayward's beautiful panorama was progressing in his remarks, somebody with more impudence than decency or good manners commenced smoking in the hall. The speaker ordered them to leave the room promptly or stop their filthy smoking. That was perfectly right, for ladies and gentlemen do not wish to be insulted in such a place by this heathenish practice. If railroad conductors were as prompt in suppressing such nuisances in cars which are not smoking pens, as they are not so marked, they would confer a favor an human sufferers, and carry out the requirements of good manners.

N. Y. Tribune.—The annual prospectus of this great national paper, than which no other agency wields more influence on this country in its political affairs, appears on the first page. With many others, we have sometimes thought the Tribune has made mistakes—and who is free from such errors?—but with all these it appears to have a prestige and power which no other paper in the land can equal. The secret is, that it means honestly, to be right all the time, and that secures the faith of the people in its integrity.

The meeting of the Massillon Literary Society on last Friday evening was well attended, and the discussion of the question of Bible reading in schools earnestly debated on both sides with becoming candor. Members expressed their sentiments pretty freely, giving utterance to their sincere convictions. The question for debate on next Thursday evening, the 23d inst. is, Resolved, That temperance should be made a political issue. That is a a plain question, and anybody can say something on it. Meeting at the Mayor's office, and open to all.

Report to Council.—The delegation appointed by our city council to attend a state convention at Columbus, consisting of Messrs. G. L, Russell, J, H. Ogden, members of council, and R. H. Folger, Esq., city solicitor, made an elaborate report of their mission on last Thursday evening. The object of this meeting at Columbus was, to propose, discuss and suggest legislative action in regard to regulating certain matters of a municipal character, in order to have uniformity and certainty on ponits now unsettled by the proper authority. The question which elicited more discussion than any other, we are informed, was the propriety of licensing a certain class of houses, of a disreputable character, by cities of the first and second classes. To many of us the answer to such a proposition would be an emphatic NO, and so did the Massillon, Toledo, Circleville and Springfield delegations vote, but the first-class cities, such as Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and many of the second class, also, voted yes, that is in favor of making such places legal by paying license. It may be all right, but this looks like very questionable morality.

The Buckeye State, of New Lisbon, 16th inst., publishes the corporators' notice of the Massillon Coal and Mining Co., stating that books will be opened for the purpose of subscribing stock, at the office of James Mullins, near East Palestine, Columbiana Co The names of the corporators are Wm. Parker, John A. Parker, Jas. Mullins, N. Ball and H. Laughlin. Books opened on the 15th of January next, and continue until sufficient stock is subscribed. There are many great coal banks in Columbiana Co.

Kelley, Bro's have a set of fine harness and several good saddles for sale cheap.

It was a cold and cheerless evening, last Saturday night, but a pair of noisy customers were arrested and put into the cold calaboose, where they could meditate on the propriety of getting drunk, violating the laws, and then undergoing the penalty. But they were let loose about 9 or 10 o'clock, and it is hoped the lesson taught them will not soon be forgotten.

John Shilth, teacher of West Massillon school, is about to open an evening class at the schoolhouse for the purpose of teaching penmanship. There are many young men who might be profited by his instructions. Those interested are invited to meet there this evening.

Scientific American.—The hundreds of intelligent and skillful mechanics in this vicinity, whose ingenuity and industry contribute so much to the prosperity of the city, will see by the prospectus in another column, that the Scientific American is just entering on another year in its career of usefulness. They will see too that unusual inducements are held out for them to aid in introducing it among their brethren of different branches of handicraft, which are well worthy of attention. Age seems to add efficiency to this weekly paper, for it certainly improves its contents—and they were always excellent. There is no paper of the class equal to the S. A. in this or any other country.

The Exhibition of Hayward's Panorama of the Holy Land was witnessed by a crowded hall on Saturday afternoon and evening. Quite an army of little ones beheld its wonders and beauties in the afternoon, and in the evening the hall was full of their seniors, who seemed equally enchanted with the grand scenes so graphically represented. The delineator added very much to the information contained in the panorama by his full and well uttered explanattons. It is worthy of public patronage.

The Tribune Almanac for 1870 will be out in a short time, and as usual enriched with standard statistical and political contents which everybody wants to possess. Price, 20 cts. The entire series of this annual from 1838 to 1868 in 2 volumes can be had for $10.

O. U. A. M., which signifies a new association of the Order of United American Mechanics has just established council No 1, at Salem. The institution appears to be flourishing, and was addressed in public lately by W. M. Weckerly, when their hall was dedicated.

Knights of Pythias is another new secret society, of a humane and social character, which originated in Pennsylvania. A council has just been organized in East Liverpool. These secret societies are becoming as plentiful as the religious sects, and if they continue to multiply why everybody will know their secrets.

Our Canton neighbors had water introduced into their town the other day through the pipes from Myers' lake. They will find it a great convenience and very useful, and may pique themselves on being nearly as good as Massillon in the supply of cold water. As to the hot stuff both have plenty.

See Peter Gribble's new advertisement in its proper place Mr. G. is always on hand with his excellent stock and elegant rigs, good enough for a prince or any other man.

The Best in the World!

The Scientific American.

$1,500 cash. 1870. $1,500 cash.

A valuable premium for all.

This splendidly illustrated, weekly journal of popular science, mechanics, invention, engineering, chemistry, architecture, agriculture and the kindred arts, enters its 25th year on the first of January next, having a circulation far exceeding that of any similar journal now published.

The editorial department of the Scientific American is very ably conducted, and some of the most popular writers in this country and Europe are contributors.

A journal of so much intrinsic value at the low price of $3 a year, ought to have in this country a million readers.

Whoever reads the Scientific American is entertained and instructed, without being bothered with hard words or dry details.

To Inventors and Mechanics

this journal is of special value, as it contains a weekly report of all patents issued at Washington with copious notices of the leading American and European inventions. The publishers of the Scientific American are the most extensive patent solicitors in the world; and have unequaled facilities for gathering a complete knowledge of the progress of invention and discovery throughout the world; and with a view to mark the quarter of a century during which this journal has held the first place in scientific and Mechanical literature, the publishers will issue on January first the large and splendid steel engraving by John Sartain of Philadelphia, entitled:

Men of Progress—American Inventors

the plate costing nearly $4,000 to engrave, and contains nineteen likenesses of illustrious American inventors. It is a superb work of art.

Single pictures printed on heavy paper will be sold at $10, but any one subscribing for the Scientific American the paper will be sent for one year, together with a copy of the engraving, on receipt of $10 The picture is also offered as a premium for clubs of subscribers.

☞ 1,500 Cash Prizes.

In addition to the above premium, the publishers will pay $1,500 in cash prizes for lists of subscribers sent in by February 10, 1870 Persons who want to compete for these prizes, should send at once for prospectus and blanks for names.

Terms of Scientific American, one year $3, six months $1.50, four months, $1. To clubs of 10 and upwards $2,50 per annum: Specimen copies sent free. Address the publishers,
MUNN & CO.,
37 Park Row, New York.

The Remedy to Cure.
The Remedy to Cure.
The Remedy to Cuer.

Will all those afflicted with cough or consumption read the following and learn the value of

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM.

WHAT THE DOCTOR'S SAY:

Amos Woolly, M. D. of Kosciusko county, Indiana, says: For three years past I have used Allen's Lung Balsam extensevely in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung diseases in use.

Isaac R. Doran, M. D. of Logan Co., Ohio, says: Allen's Lung Balsam not only sells rapidly, but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it, and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice, and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known.

Dr. Lloyd, of Ohio, surgeon in the army during the war, from exposure contracted consumption. He says: I have no hesitation in saying that it was by the use of your Lung Balsam that I am now alive and enjoying health.

Dr. Fletcher, of Missouri, says: I recommend your Balsam in preference to any other medicine for coughs, and gives satisfaction

Allen's Lung Balsam is the remedy to cure all Lung and Throat difficulties; it should be thoroughly tested before using any other balsam. It will cure when all others fail Directions accompany each bottle. J. N. HARRIS & Co., sole proprietor, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BEST CABINET ORGANS

AT LOWEST PRICES.

That the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet and Metropolitan organs are the best in the world is proved by the almost unanimous opinion of professional musicians, by the award to them of seventy-five gold and silver metals or other highest premiums, at principal industrial competitions within a few years, including the medal at the Paris exposition, and by a sale very much greater than that of any similar instruments. This company manufacture only first-class instruments, and will not make cheap organs at any price, or suffer an inferior instrument to bear their name. Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacture, by the introduction of new machinery and otherwise, they are now making better organs than ever before, at increased economy in cost, which, in accordance with their fixed policy of selling always at least remunerative profit they are now offering at prices of inferior work. Four octave organs, plain walnut case, $50. Five octave organs, double reed, solid walnut case, carved and paneled, with five stops, (Viola, Diapason, Melodia, Flute, Tremulant), $125. Other styles in proportion.

Circulars with full particulars including accurate drawings of the different styles of organs, and much, information which will be of service to every purchaser of an organ will be sent free, and postage paid, to any one desiring them. We, the Druggists of Massillon, call the attention of our customers to the letters published below of the wonderful efficacy of Dr Roback's Stomach Bitters, Dr. Roback's Scandinavian Blood Purifier, and Dr. Roback's Scandinavian Blood Pills. We have been selling these medicines long enough to know that they are all they are recommended to be, and that the certificates of cures published are true.

The following, from one of the most worthy citizens of Athens County, Ohio.

We take pleasure in publishing such certificates, as we know it to be genuine.

EDITOR.

Athens, Athens Co., O., August 10, 1859.

Dr. C. W. Roback,

Dear Sir:—Permit me to say in relation to your Scandinavian Blood Pills and Blood Purifier, that I have used several boxes and bottles, and have found their effects on my system to be all that is claimed for them in your advertisements. I have also seen the effects of your Pills upon a child four or five years old, in expelling worms from the bowels.—One dose given the child, confined to the bed, and apparently very sick, caused the worms to come away from it in great numbers, and they were found crawling and scattered all about. The child thus relieved recovered immediately, and is now well and hearty.

Yours, &c.

JOSEPH HERROLD.

THE PRESENT NUMBER of the INDEPENDENT completes the first half of the sixth year of its existence. It is the intention and special business of the publishers to continue its labors in behalf of this community. Having thus long issued the paper regularly and promptly we are confident that our numerous patrons will appreciate these efforts made to subserve their interests, and will not fail to continue their patronage as they have heretofore done. We make no preposterous attempts to give particulars as to what is going on all over our country, much less what is transpiring in other countries, but aim to attend to and foster the local affairs of this community. Like all other kinds of business, either of a public or private nature, ours has its mutations, and we are prepared to submit to these changes of prosperity or adversity as they may mark our course in carrying out our laudable intentions. But with all our vigilance matters worthy of note may occasionally transpire even among us which escape attention; yet it is not for lack of interest in them that these delinquencies occur, but rather in consequence of our misfortune in not knowing of their existence. Sometimes we are reprimanded for our shortcomings, which is always in order, and to which we submit with the meekness and humility becoming a Christian spirit. In a community of some 6,000 or 7,000 people he must be a pretty sharp observer if he knows of all the goings on among the people. We make no such pretensions, but aim to do the best we can under the circumstances. To others we must look for aid, at least in a measure, to help us in filling the local department of the paper. We here render thanks for the numerous favors received from friends in this particular. If we are so unfortunate as to have enemies, and he is a lucky dog (perhaps) who has not—who are slyly or openly trying to interfere with our legitimate business, we forgive them, and shall go on as if they were not.

THE PROSPECT

For business among us in the various branches of manufacture and trade looks favorable at present. The large manufacturing shops have opened out propitiously, and bid fair, so far as we can foresee, to realize their best anticipations. Both furnaces are actively in blast, and turning out large quantities of iron daily—hundreds of tuns every week, which is finding a ready market, and thus proving a source of revenue to the proprietors, and an advantage to the vicinity in which they are located.

Both our large agricultural machinery manufacturing establishments, as they increase in years become more firmly and solidly fixed on sure foundations. Their reputation for producing first-class materials in their branch of useful industry is not confined to our own extended country, but reaches to other nations and far off countries; and no surprise need be excited if they receive orders from China and Japan, or their handiwork is transported through the Suez canal away off in Asia among the Turks—if they have use for such implements.

Myers & Willison and Mong & Crawford constantly have their machinery whizzing away under the propelling power of steam, and are turning off work at a rapid rate.

Killinger & Co. are briskly manufacturing stoves, steam engines, materials for plows, and other articles of minor importance.

Hundreds of miners are bringing coal from the bowels of the earth, much of which is consumed among us for manufacturing purposes and for fuel, but hundreds of tuns are carried away weekly to distant markets.

Perhaps this is not the season for quarrying stone, but several of the men engaged in the manufacture of grindstones and furnishing building stone are pretty well off—we may say, rich, and are becoming more so in providing this useful material for the market.

The building which is constantly going on gives employment to large numbers of men in the various branches of mechanism; and never was there more activity in these indispensable avocations than now.

This activity in the diversified branches of manufacture has a tendancy to stimulate business men in the way of trade, accordingly our merchants of all classes appear to be driving ahead and selling immense quantities of goods which is demanded by the rapidly increasing population. The windows of many of them are glaring with temptations which will entice the stamps out of many a pocket that will take a brief repose in their drawers and tills.

Tailors and shoemakers are rushed with orders, and they scarcely know, some of them, when Sunday comes, and night finds them all stitching away as lively as fingers and machinery can put work through. It was thought that sewing machinery would give rest to tailors and shoemakers, but here all have so much to do that even the lightning stitchers can't fill their orders as fast as the people want them.

Our clothing stores must have enough garments on hand to make comfortable many regiments of men and boys, but their stocks wont last long if people continue to carry away the coats and things at the rate they have been doing of late. Cold weather is favorable to their trade.

But we can't pretend to gather all the evidences of prosperity in this community at one time—it is too big a job. Everybody who is making reasonable effort seems to be prospering satisfactorily.

The unprecedented quantities of lumber here in the three lumber yards indicate that considerable building is in prospect the coming season.

The two marble establishments are in active operation, both turning off a large amount of first class work, and are receiving orders from all quarters.

Mr. Kittinger keeps his wire loom in active operation, and no doubt will have plenty of work of his manufacture.

These scattering statements are not all wind—puffs of empty air, but realities, and they might be indefinitely extended so as to fill up columns of our paper. If our neighbors are dubious as to their correctness we cordially invite them to come and see for themselves, and they will find that it is not boasting or gasing to astonish anybody.

The next meeting of the Stark county Medical Society will be held at the rooms of Y. M. C. A., Canton, Thursday, Dec. 30th, 1869.

LECTURE.—We willingly announce that Wm. H. Thomas, an intelligent colored man of Allegheny City, Pa., will lecture on next Friday evening, in the colored church of this place, on Erie st., on the subject of Caste: Causes and its effects upon republican institutions. It is a subject of interest to all classes and nativities, this question of caste, and whatever prejudices we have that will not stand the test of equal rights and true democracy, no matter how deeply rooted, should be combatted, and if unjust, overthrown. This notion of assumed superiority is that so well described by the scriptural expression, "Stand aside; I am holier than thou." The speaker respectfully invites the presence of those of a different color from his own. Lecture free. Recollect—Friday evening next, the 14th inst.

Christmas, the almanacs tell us, comes this year on the 25th of December, which is next Saturday. As it is a great day with us, we wish all a pleasant, merry time.

Will boarders take the hint and spread the butter thin—very thin—as it is forty cents a pound.

The brief and exciting cry of Fire on Monday evening in Yost & Bros shop, originated in the upsetting of a lamp, the oil of which made a momentary blaze, but was promptly extinguished by throwing a rug over it. The fire bells were rung and everything ready, but their services were not needed.

PEAT.—Mr. Moses Clay, residing a few miles from this place, is about taking measures to introduce peat into market here, as it is said there are signs of an abundance of this article on his farm. If successful, and we hope he may be in finding it all right, it may prove a very profitable investment. Timber for fuel is becoming scarce, and if peat can be had on terms to be a substitute there need be no fears for a market to almost any extent. This is but another evidence of the wealth of this region of country, and there may be other sources unexplored which time and discovery may develop.

A LARGE amount of money was paid out by Messrs. Russell on Saturday last to their operatives. This extensive establishment, after a brief recess which it takes annually at the end of the season, commenced active operations on Monday last. We hope the proprietors may be favored with a prosperous year's labor.

THE BANNER OF LIGHT, a paper well known to the literary and reading community all over the country, has achieved and deserves the reputation of being the most ably conducted organ of its class in the country. It is printed in a model style of neatness—most of the matter is original, and of a high literary character, whether contributed by the editors, correspondents or lecturers; and thoroughly pervaded by the philosophy of spiritualism, it inculcates the highest moral obligations, fostering the example of kindness and charity to all opponents, and seeking to render impressive its teachings by the genial spirit of true Christianity, rather than a propagandism of a more fierce and violent nature. Those convinced of the truthfulness of the doctrines inculcated in this Banner of Light will do well to have its weekly visits. See prospectus.

HALL'S

VEGETABLE SICILIAN

HAIR RENEWER

RESTORES GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR, PROMOTES ITS GROWTH AND IS A SPLENDID DRESSING. TRY ONE BOTTLE AND THICKEN UP THE THIN LOCKS!

Is the only perfected and scientifically prepared preparation of its kind ever offered to the public, and has no competitor in merit. By its use GRAY HAIR is soon restored to its original youthful color and brilliancy, which is so much admired by all. Persons whose hair is thin or falling out will, by the use of our Renewer, soon see its good effects, as, by its tonic and stimulating properties the hair glands will be incited and the hair grow thick and strong again. In cases of Baldness it will create a new growth unless the follicles are destroyed. It is cooling, and allays all itching and irritation of the scalp. It does not stain the skin as do dyes, but makes the scalp white and clean. As a DRESSING it is the best and most economical preparation in the world, as its effects last so much longer. Send for our Treatise on the hair, free to all, by mail.

Mrs S. A. ALLEN

MRS. ALLEN'S

Hair Restorer & Zylobalsamum

Are so uniformly grateful and beneficial, that they are with justice called the natural strengtheners of the human hair. They are two entirely separate and distinct preparations, not to be used together at one time.

Mrs. Allen's Hair Restorer

Never fails to satisfy the most refined and cultivated. A guarantee goes with every bottle, that it will quickly restore gray or white hair to its original youthful beauty, gloss and color; after its use a few times the hair will grow thicker and stronger. It will stop its falling and induce a healthy and luxuriant growth. It is an exquisite hair dressing, agreeable, harmless and healthy. Entirely different from most other preparations for the hair, its composition and ingredients are nourishing, giving life and vigor to the Roots.

Mrs. Allen's Zylobalsamum

This exquisite preparation is free from any sediment, and is a toilet treasure. The urgent want of a simple Hair Dressing, for the youth of both sexes, first induced the manufacture of the Zylobalsamum, and the sale of it is perfectly immense, not only in this country, but in Europe.

EXTRACTS FROM A FEW LETTERS.

"Your Zylobalsamum is used by every member, young and old, of our family, and we consider it invaluable. Should any gray hairs appear, we shall try your Hair Restorer, which we hear very highly spoken of."

"Father and mother use your Hair Restorer, and are delighted with it. It soon restored their gray locks to their youthful color, but daughters and son still find in the Zylobalsamum all their hair requires."

From the Principal of one of our large Female Seminaries: "Your Zylobalsamum has been used for many years by myself and family, and is the favorite among our young ladies."

HEALTH! BEAUTY!!

Strong, Pure and Rich Blood—Increase of Flesh and Weight—Clear Skin and Beautiful Complexion, SECURED to ALL.

RADWAY'S

Sarsaparillian Resolvent

HAS MADE THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES. SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES THE BODY UNDERGOES UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

Scrofula, Consumption, Syphilis, uncured and badly treated Venereal, in its many forms, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the Throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Gland, and other parts of the System, Sore Eyes, Strumous discharges from the Ears, Eruptive diseases of the Eyes, Nose, Mouth, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all Weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent, and a few days use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease, its potent power to cure them.

Not only does the Sarsaparillian Resolvent excel all known remedial agents, in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous Constitutional, Skin and Syphilod diseases but it is the only positive remedy for Kidney, Bladder Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are Brick dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid dark, bilious appearance, and white bone dust deposits, and where there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back, and along the Loins. In all these conditions Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent aided by the application of Radway's Ready Relief to the Spine and Small of the Back, and the Bowels regulated with one or two of Radway's Regulating Pills per day, will soon make a complete cure. In a few days, the patient will be enabled to hold and discharge his water naturally without pain, and the Urine will be restored to its natural Clear, and amber or sherry color.

THE WASTES OF THE BODY

are supplied with new, healthy, and vigorous blood, that furnishes sound structure. Hence all suffering from WEAKENING DISCHARGES, either MALE or FEMALE, of the Womb, Uterus, or other organs, whether Leucorrhœa, Sperm, or Eruptive discharges, of every kind, or from violence of "Self-abuse," from the Genital Glands, or Venereal discharges, or ulcers, or sores, through the reparative process of RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN, are arrested, and the ruptured organs healed

THE TRUE THEORY OF CURE.

RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT supplies the system, through the blood, urine, sweat, and structure-making constituents with Tissue making, Flesh making, Heat or Caloric and Fat making elements. All constituents are nourishing, purifying, and strengthening. It Repairs, Heals, Resolves, and drives out of the body the products of Decay and Corruption CONSUMPTION, WHITE SWELLING, DROPSY, SYPHILIS, CANCERS, TUMORS, &c., are all of a scrofulous diathesis, and as such, are within the curative range of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT!

1. That Scrofula, by whatever name designated, is the result of deposits from the blood, induced or caused by Chronic inflammation. That those deposits take place when the blood is poor, weak, watery, and incapable of holding in solution its proper constituents, or from the presence of some virus or poison in the blood as Mercury, Calomel, Corrosive Sublimate, which is the Corrosive Chloride of Mercury or other agent, given in medicines and which enter largely in the common advertised Sarsaparillas, NOT ABSORBED OR CHANGED FROM THEIR NATURAL CONDITION.

2. That unless the repair, or nutriments are greater than the wastes, that decomposition and decay will supervene, and the powers of life become exhausted.

3. That the dying body cannot be sustained on any treatment or medication that exhausts the system, or fails to nourish the blood, the only medium through which the vital forces are preserved, and on which the growth of the body depends.

4. That Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent supplies a want never before possessed or known to exist in medicine, that this new found principle in Chemical science, which has been brought to such a perfect system of cure is exhibited as follows:

1. Its great power in assimilating the food in its first stage of distillation in the process of digestion, as chyme and chyle with the nourishing elements of blood, separating from these liquids refuse and inert qualities before they are taken up by the lacteals and are formed into blood. Here we see that by its wonderful power it charges the system with the very essence or principle that forms the vital powers of the body, and its chemical action on the blood in its primitive and complete condition, separates every atom of refuse material or element, out of which the virus of disease is formed.

2. That, the blood thus prepared, and supplied with these nourishing properties becomes strong, rich and healthy, and holds in solution its proper constituents, through which the Sarsaparillian Resolvent, and repairs the wastes of the body with sound and healthy structures. Such is the wonderful power the Sarsaparillian Resolvent exerts on the blood and juices of the system, that no virulent humors or poisons will exist by which deposits are made.

3. The rapidity with which the Sarsaparillian enters the circulation, and communicates its curative powers through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids, secures the constituent secretions of each respective organ, establishing functional harmony throughout the system; through its action and power over the Secretions, the Liver secretes its natural or proper allotment of bile; the Skin sweat; the Kidneys urea; and the Lungs carbon; so that this wonderful medicine not only establishes health in the sick body, but preserves the system in health.

As we have shown the principle on which disease is formed, as well as the only sensible theory of cure, we claim that the range of cure of the Sarsaparillian Resolvent is unlimited, and that every disease that is of a Chronic, Scrofulous or Organic Diathesis, is, properly within its special range.

in this Medicine consists in the selection of ingredients containing curative and nourishing properties that supply the blood and general system with such constituents which, in a condition of disease and depravity, it is deficient of, together with the combination of the several ingredients that form the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT.

It the constituent of Oxygen was exhausted from the atmospheric air, life would become extinct. So, when the blood becomes exhausted of its vital constituents, it deposits its tubercles and diseased humors in the body, and the elements of decay and decomposition supervene. Radway's Sarsaparillian Resolvent is to the blood and general system what OXYGEN is to the atmospheric air; it supplies the life principle, and enables the blood to hold in solution all its natural constituents.

DAILY CHANGES

take place, for as the Sarsaparillian increases the strength and purity of the blood, all deposits are diminished, and where there are tubercles formed in the lungs, the further deposits are arrested, and those that are established or forming dislodged, expelled, exhausted, or the portion of the diseased lung cicatrized, and the consumptive, scrofulous subject receives good, if not sound, health.

BLIND LADY CURED.

Gravel, Dyspepsia, Sore Legs, Bleeding from the Lungs, Cured.

Mr. GEORGE MORTIMER, a commercial traveller, in Canada West, writes us, under date of April 17, 1868, from Woodstock:—

"The SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT is in great demand, and working wonders. Mr. HOAG, of Straffordsville, merchant, told me of one case where a wound WAS HEALED, but, by the use of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT, can now see to read. She would give a certificate, but does not wish to be bothered with people writing. Hundreds call to see her. The cure is regarded as wonderful.

"Messrs. WHITE & SCOTT, principal druggists here, inform me of a person of note—high social standing—who for years was afflicted with DYSPEPSIA and GRAVEL, who has been entirely cured by RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT."

Mr. HOAG reports another case of Chronic Sore Leg, that resisted all other advertised medicines, cured by a few bottles of SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT.

"Mr. JONATHAN FRELAND, of Widder Station, cured, by one bottle, of Bleeding from the Lungs, Night Sweats, Threatened Consumption.

"In every town I visit I hear of wonderful cures by the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. For every kind of Humor, Sore, Skin Eruption, and all weakening discharges, the people use it, and become cured; so with Fits, Scrofula, White Swelling, Sore Heads and Eyes, Nose and Mouth, all kinds of Sores, this wonderful remedy acts so powerfully on the blood that all who take it become strong, sound, and healthy.

"GEO. C. MORTIMER,
"Commercial Traveller."

RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT is sold at $1 per Bottle, or 6 Bottles for $5, by all Druggists and Medicine Dealers, and at DR. RADWAY'S Medicine Warehouse, 87 Maiden Lane, New York City.

Alcock's Porous Plasters seem to possess the quality of

Accumulating Electricity

and imparting it to the body, whereby the circulation of the blood becomes equalized upon the parts where applied, causing pain and morbid action to cease. The Porous Plasters are flexible, and found of a great help to those who have weak backs, or pain in the side. Especially are they valuable to those wyo have neglected colds. They are often preventives of consumption; nay, they are believed to have often loosened the grasp of this terrible affliction, and been mainly instrumental in effecting a cure. In variable climates they should be worn on the breast or between the shoulders, or over the kidneys, by those who are subject to take colds easily.

Errors of Youth.

A gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity send free to all who need it, the recipe and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience can do so by addressing in perfect confidence, JOHN B. OGDEN, 42 Cedar street, N. Y. 307 1y

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1870, for distribution gratis, throughout the United States and all civilized countries of the western hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the planter, and professional man, and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive national calendar.

The nature, uses and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable receipts for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this one will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. Send for copies to the central manufactory, at Pittsburgh, Pa., or to the nearest dealer in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The bitters are sold in every town, city and village and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S

VERMIFUGE.

It is now over forty years since this medicine was offered as a remedy for Worms, and from that time its reputation has steadily increased until at the present day it is almost universally acknowledged throughout nearly all parts of the world to be the sovereign remedy. Worm Confections, made more for the purpose of pleasing the palate than of overcoming the disease, have been manufactured all over the country; but their short lease of life is nearly exhausted, and B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge continues to grow in favor daily. Children often look pale and sickly from no other cause than worms, and spasms are most frequently the result of these hidden sappers and miners.

When they are irritable and feverish, sometimes craving food and eating ravenously, again refusing wholesome food, tossing restlessly in sleep, moaning and grinding the teeth, then be assured these symptoms are indications of worms.

Uneasiness and pain in the abdomen, with swelling and hardness, are generally attendant upon the presence of these hidden sappers and miners.

A gradual wasting away or emaciation of the flesh is one of the most common attendants upon worms. They absorb the animal juices, and destroy the nourishment imparted to the stomach by wholesome diet, thereby occasioning a variable appetite and a strong desire for indigestible food.

The stomach has, undoubtedly, a very great sympathy with other parts of the body. This is the case with respect to the irritation produced by worms, especially those resting in the stomach itself. They give rise to many other diseases, and patients often suffer incredibly without being aware of the cause.

Many a helpless child has been laid in the grave, when the disease which caused its death has been entirely misunderstood, and when worms have really been the cause. It has been proved beyond cavil that worms exist in the human system from earliest infancy, therefore parents—especially mothers, who are more constantly with their children, cannot be too observing of the first symptoms of worms, for so surely as they exist, can they be safely and speedily removed from the most delicate infant, by the timely use of B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge.

Physicians do not hesitate to recommend it and use it in their practice, and many of the most eminent of the profession, from all parts of the country, testify to its uniform success. In fact, it never fails. It has frequently been given to children as a safe purgative, not suspecting the cause of the illness, and large quantities of worms were discharged and immediate relief afforded.

Great caution must be used by every purchaser, to be his own judge in one sense, and to examine every bottle he buys of it. The simple name of FAHNESTOCK is not sufficient. He must look closely and carefully to see that the initials are B. A FAHNESTOCK, and be satisfied with nothing else.

BOTTLED PARALYSIS.

This is the proper title of the horrible metallic hair dyes. Worse than the fate of Absalom may be the fate of those who use them. ONE WHOLESOME PREPARATION for changing the hair to any desirable shade from brown to jet black may be procured everywhere, viz.

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

After a careful analysis Prof. Chilton, the distinguished Chemist, has authorized the proprietor to declare on his behalf, that it contains nothing deleterious to health. No other hair dye in the world has the like guarantee.

Christadoro's Hair Preservative, as a dressing, acts like a charm on the hair after dyeing. Try it.

To Owners of Horses.

Thousands of horses die yearly from colic. This need not be. Dr. Tobias' Venetian Horse Liniment will positively cure every case, if given when first taken. The cost is only one dollar. Every owner of a horse should have a bottle in his stable ready for use. It is warranted superior to anything else for the cure of cuts, wind galls, swellings, sore throat, sprains, bruises, old sores, &c. This liniment is no new remedy. It has been used and approved of for 23 years by the first horsemen of the country. Given to an over driven horse, it acts like magic. Orders are constantly received from the racing stables of England for it. The celebrated Hiram Woodruff, of trotting fame, used it for years. Col. Philo P. Bush of the Jerome race course, has given a certificate which can be seen at the depot, stating that after years of trial it is the best in the world. His address is Fordham, N. Y. No one once using it, will ever be without it. It is put up in pint bottles. Sold by the druggists and saddlers throughout the United States. Depot 10 Park Place, New York.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

A PETITION.

To the New York Convention in behalf of the Ladies, by their friend and counsel. Written more that fifty years ago

BY W. R.

A humble bard, who ne'er before
Addressed a speaker on the floor
Of Capitol, would mention,
Without a quibble or a quirk,
What ladies beg may be one work
Of your wise state convention.

That every one must have a vote
Who does not wear a petticoat,
Is generally admitted;
But why should women be denied,
And have her tongue forever tied,
For party broils well fitted.

The question is of great account,
Which no convention can surmount,
Without dissatisfaction
Amongst the ladies—so I fear,
And therefore as their friend appear,
And counsel in this action.

That women have a right to live,
Ten thousand reasons I could give,
But that was never doubted,
And he who did their freedom balk,
And say they have no right to talk,
Should from this world be scouted.

The Turks, I know, who have no polls,
Believe that women have no souls;
But, when they wear the breeches,
As often as they do in states like ours,
Which gives them supernatural powers,
We hang them up for witches.

To say that women must be driven
From every other place but Heaven,
Is certainly alarming;
And he who would the like maintain,
Ought to be treated with disdain,
In company so charming.

Man is half woman, at the least,
Excepting now and then a beast,
Who forfeits all pretensions
To decency and common sense,
By many a foul and black offense,
And yet, some state conventions

Have, in their wisdom, found it meet
To let such wretches stop their feet,
Polluted with infection,
Into the sacred lane where lies
The ark of all our liberties,
The birthright of election,

Where woman, pure as Eden's queen,
Before that worst, distressing scene,
In mystery darkly hidden,
Must stand aloof, remaining dumb,
And never to election come,
By haughty man forbidden.

But you, immortal statesmen, you,
Keeping the lovely sex in view,
At your august convention,
Will frame the constitution so
That ladies can't election go
Without the least detention

RAILROADS AS METEOROLOGICAL AGENTS.

In spite of a good deal of pooh poohing, the opinion seems to be gradually gaining ground that our rapidly growing railway system is already exerting a marked influence on the weather of certain districts. Along the Pacific railway where terrible droughts have been the rule ever since the plains were first explored, copious and abundants rains have fallen regularly since rails were laid. The climate of Central Ohio, as has been frequently remarked, has undergone a complete change since the completion of the network of iron which now traverses that region. No one whose memory extends back fifteen years need be told that the sudden and terrific thunder storms, and the enormous falls of snow which were so common in those times are no longer known. The direct relation of railways to these altered meteorological conditions is neither obscure nor improbable. Sudden and violent changes of weather are now pretty generally understood to be due mainly to electrical causes. The varying conditions of climate create at one point a highly electrified state of the earth and atmosphere and at another point the electrical supply is greatly reduced. To restore the equilibrium thus disturbed we formerly had a thunder storm. Now the work is quickly and constantly performed by the long lines of iron rails and the telegraph wires by which they are attended. The electrical balance being thus kept in constant poise, there results a more equal distribution of rain and a constantly decreasing tendency toward sudden and violent electrical phenomena. The subject is one which we shall be glad to see thoroughly discussed and explained.—Cleveland Leader

At a hotel in Sonoma, Cal., on the 13th ult., one William Hurd, who was drunk, said to Wilham Hudson, his friend, also drunk, with whom he had never quarreled, "I wish you would cut my throat, or my head off." Hudson replied: "All right, I can do it in a minute.' Soon after Hudson borrowed a knife, returned where Hurd was sitting and inflicted a severe wound in his back, causing almost instant death. Hudson was arrested for thus accommodating his friend.

John G Saxe, at a hotel the other day, undertook to carve a piece of beef which was so tough that the carving knife made but little impression upon it. The poet laid down the knife and fork, glanced around, and spoke: "Gentlemen," said he, "that's an infringement on Goodyear's patent!"

A White Pine restaurant adopts this method of advertising: "And Joseph wept aloud, and he said unto his brethren: "I am Joseph: doth my father yet live?' And his brethren answered him: "You bet, the old man is doing bully, for he boards at the Cosmopolitan."

Oliver Dalrymple, the great wheat grower of Minnesota, says he is by no means discouraged at the low price of wheat. He will sow 2,200 acres next spring, the ground for which is already plowed. He sold nearly the entire crop of the present year at an average price of $1 a bushel.

The Revolution mentions the recent burial of a New York belle in the Potter's Field. Those who came into possession of her property, worth many thousands of dollars, had the ineffable meanness to send her at the city's expense to the Potter's Field. She was a young widow, 29 years old, and only eighteen months ago wore fifteen thousand dollars worth of diamonds.

A stage robber, recently arrested in California, has made a confession, revealing the fact that there is an organized band, with code of laws, grips, signs, and passwords, operating from Oregon to Arizona, and into Nevada. The band was originally organized at Portland, Oregon, and has for months pursued a career of robbery and murder.

This infallible remedy does not, like the poisonous irritating snuffs and strong caustic solutions with which the people have long been humbugged, simply paliate for a short time, or drive the disease to the lungs, as there is danger of doing in the use of such nostrums, but it produces perfect and permanent cures of the worst cases of chronic catarrh, as thousands can testify. Cold in the head is cured with a few applications. Catarrhal headache is relieved and cured as if by magic. It removes offensive breath, loss or impairment of the sense of taste, smell, or hearing, waterfng or weak eyes, and impaired memory, when caused by the violence of catarrh, as they all frequently are. We offer $500 for a case of catarrh that we cannot cure.

For sale by most Druggists everywhere. Price 50 cents.

Ask your druggists for the remedy, but if he has not got it on sale, don't be put off by accepting any miserable worse than worthless substitute, but enclose 60 cents to me, and the remedy will be sent to you postpaid. Received per hands of Jas H. Hunt, agent of Security Life Insurance and Annuity Co., of N. Y. Two Thousand Dollars for insurance on the life of Thos. A Ricks. I take great pleasure in bearing testimony to the promptness with which the Security pays its losses.
WM. F. RICKS, Adm'r.

The above company has demonstrated time and again the value of life insurance by distributing among the widows and orphans of 175 Members the sum of $500,000.
Yet its losses in proportion to the number insured and amount of insurance has been few and light, according to a compilation from the last published report of the Massachusetts Insurance Commissioner, showing the ratio of claims by death to policies issued during the last 12 months in the leading life insurance companies, thus:

Name of Company.	Ratio.			Person Ins.
Mass Mutual	21	one	death in	every 476
N England Mut.	20	one	do do	500
Aetna	32	one	do do	513
Connecticut Mut	30	one	do do	333
Equitable	30	one	do do	533
Germania	41	one	do do	244
Globe Mutual	28	one	do do	357
Knickerbocker	42	one	do do	238
Mutual Life	14	one	do do	715
Mutual Benefit	32	one	do do	313
New-York Life	52	one	do do	192
North American	29	one	do do	345
Security	9	one	do do	1111
American Popular.	6	one	do do	1668

The old companies are ever harping upon the ratio of their expenses and proportion to business done, whereas, to every person seeking insurance the fact that the profit and loss account is very important. Taken together the cost of Insurance depends upon the vitality of the company in which you insure. And the best proof of inherent vitality is the low ratio of claims in the past. Those wishing to procure valuable life insurance can do so by calling on JAMES H. HUNT, Esq., at Exchange Bank. JACOB HEATON,

FASSETT'S
PIANO-FORTE
ORGAN & MELODEON
AGENCY,
ESTABLISHED IN 1849.
Office, Cor. Seneca and Champlain Sts.
CLEVELAND, OHIO.
The management of this agency take great pleasure in informing the citizens of this vicinity, that hereafter they can avail themselves of the Superior Inducements offered by this agency in procuring Instruments of the FIRST CLASS,
As we Positively
Deal in None Others.
Parties contemplating a purchase will find it materially to their interest to give us their address, and receive a call from one of the agents, who will get an idea of what is desired, and then will take particular pains to SATISFY ALL PURCHASERS, as to style, prices and terms of payment. This agency can show upwards of Fifty Instruments
now in private houses, within ten miles from this point; some of them having been in constant use for THIRTEEN YEARS, and have never been out of repair. We do not come before the public offering a first class instrument for $50, as we cannot get them. Our instruments have not declined in prices, but on the contrary, have advanced, within the past year five per cent. Our ROSEWOOD ORGANS AND MELODEON are veneered with Sawed Cut Veneers. The material is first class in every respect. The tuning is as near perfect as possible. The Beauty of Design and Finish surpass all others now in market. Persons never having seen our instruments have no idea of the advantages we offer, and should not think of purchasikg elsewhere without first consulting us.
Time Payments.
After this date our particular attention is to be devoted to this rule of trade, although considered by many dealers as not very remunerative, yet, having for many years endeavored to favor the industrious working classes with every advantage for procuring instruments and enjoying music at home, we are now determined to perfect this branch of trade, so that the man of moderate means may give his children the advantages of a Musical Education.
Pianos, Organs and Melodeons repaired in a workman like manner by COMPETENT WORKMEN. Old Instruments taken in exchange for new ones at their true value. All instruments delivered FREE OF CHARGE.
Pianos removed, packed, and shipped at reasonable rates.
